HOW THE NHL CAME TO MINNESOTA

The story of how the National Hockey League came to Minnesota boils down to this basic fact – a group of Twin Cities men were determined to bring the fastest, most-exciting sport in the world to this state.

This means that the announcement by National League President Clarence Campbell on March 11, 1965 that the then-six team circuit would expand was a signal for action for first eight, then nine Twin Cities figures.

The results of that action over the past two-and-a-half years are evident – the North Stars are this year playing in the National League, with a brand-new team, in a brand-new building.

It took a bit of doing.

First, a syndicate of eight men (later enlarged to nine) was formed to pursue the object of landing a franchise.

That partnership was revealed on June 19, 1966. Some eight months later – with thousands of hours of work behind them – the Minnesotans learned on February 9, 1966 that they would become one of the six new teams in the NHL's Western Division.

They had a franchise. All they needed now was a building, a general manager, a coach, a team and customers.

First and foremost, the building problem loomed ahead of them. Time was of the essence. But plans were made as swiftly as possible and ground was broken for $6 million Metropolitan Sports Center on October 3, 1966. In a remarkable job of construction, the structure was erected in just over 12 months, in time for the North Stars' maiden season in the league.

A general manager? Wren Blair was the obvious choice. The former Boston farm boss came to the North Stars on May 25, 1966, with impeccable credentials, then proceeded to prove the truth of those notices by conducting a talent search that didn't overlook a single hockey player worth mention in North America.

That search paid dividends on June 6, 1967 – the day after the North Stars gave the NHL a $2 million check for the price of membership and the right to draft 20 players. Blair, who later decided to take the coaching reins, drew a lavish helping of praise for the manner in which he chose Minnesota's top 20.

Customers are the ultimate test of a professional team. If season ticket sales are any indication, the North Stars will pass that test. By early September sales were pushing 6,000 and the team's officials had high hopes for 7,000.

It's been a long road, but a happy one for these nine Minnesotans – Walter L. Bush, Jr., W. John Driscoll, Harry G. McNeely, Jr., Robert J. McNulty, John G. Ordway, Jr., William R. Rasmussen, Robert B. Ridder, Gordon H. Ritz and Wheelock Whitney.

THE ROOTS RUN DEEP

The roots of hockey run deep, perhaps deeper than anywhere else in the United States, in the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul and in the state of Minnesota.

Hockey history started in Minnesota during the years before the turn of the century – but it was in the Roaring 20's when a series of stars emerged from the state to make their marks on the national scene.

During those years after World War I and before the Depression, spectators flocked to St. Paul's Hippodrome – many of them by trolley car – and to Minneapolis' Arena to watch such heroes of the day as Frank (Moose) Goheen, Ivan (Ching) Johnson, Tiny Thompson, Tony Conroy, Coonie Weiland and a host of others strut their stuff on the ice.

The class of the hockey played at that time is evidenced by the presence of Goheen, Johnson and Thompson in the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Still another Hall of Famer came out of Northern Minnesotan during the next decade. Frankie Brimsek was Mr. Zero in goal for Boston before and after World War II.

Still later, Minnesotans John Mariucci, Mike Karakas, Jack McCartan and Tommy Williams took their turns in the National League. Williams, like McCartan a hero of the 1960 triumph at Squaw Valley for the United States Olympic team, last year finished his sixth season at wing for Boston and was the only American to play in the NHL for the full 1966-67 season.

WALTER BUSH, JR.
President
Born: Minneapolis, Sept. 25, 1929
Home: Edina, Minn.

DEPTH of background in hockey matched by few men in the United States is carried on the shoulders of Walter L. Bush, Jr., president of the North Stars.

BEFORE the Minnesota attorney launched into the venture of the National Hockey League, he had wide and varied experience as a player, as a coach, as an executive.

ALL of this background has been of great value to the North Stars during the search for a franchise, during the year of preparation for play, during this baptismal season.

BUSH played hockey at Breck School in the Twin Cities, at Dartmouth where he obtained a B.A. degree and, from 1953 through 1957, for a senior team in Minneapolis. He graduated from the University of Minnesota Law School with an L.L.B. degree in 1954.

HE moved into the executive end of the sport while he still was a player. Bush organized the United States Central League in 1955, served three years as its president and acted as legal counsel. He served as coach and general manager of the league's Minneapolis team from 1958 through 1962. He was president two years and vice-president four years of the Minnesota Amateur Hockey Association.

TWO of the North Stars' owners — Robert McNulty and Gordon Ritz — joined Bush in ownership and operation of the Minneapolis Bruins, a professional team that played in the Central Hockey League during the seasons of 1963-64 and 1964-65.

PARTICIPATION in the Olympic and international hockey field has been and continues to be an abiding interest for Bush.

HE managed the 1959 United States National team and the 1964 United States Olympic team, was a member of the United States Olympic Committee in 1963-64 and is currently serving a four-year term as a member of the USOC's Ice Hockey Section. He also is secretary of the Ice Hockey Section.

IN 1962 he was a member of the World Tournament Committee for the meet held that year in Colorado Springs, Colo., and has, over the past 10 years, arranged tours and promoted games in Middle Western states for a number of international teams.

SINCE 1959 Bush has been a director of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States, the body that governs amateur hockey in the nation. Three times he has represented the United States at the annual meeting of the International Ice Hockey Federation in Europe.

EVEN at home the North Stars' president is not far removed from the ice. His wife, the former Mary Relf, skated with the Ice Follies.

WREN BLAIR
General Manager-Coach
Born: Lindsay, Ont., Oct. 2, 1925
Home: Bloomington, Minn.

COACH Wren Blair inherited the results of the work of General Manager Wren Blair when the North Stars took the ice for the first time in the National Hockey League.

IT was Blair, as general manager, who rounded up and is responsible for every player on the North Stars' roster.

IT is Blair, as coach, who, in his words: "Must live with my own decisions."

THE man the trade knows as the Bird had neither managed nor coached in the National League until Minnesota named him general manager in 1966 and coach in 1967. But on the basis of his record, he's capable of doing both at the same time — and handling two or three or more jobs on the side.

DURING his rise from (at age 20) managing and coaching in the Oshawa, Ont., City Mercantile League to managing and coaching in the National League, Blair's teams won in 13 seasons 10 championships, ranging from the world amateur title in 1958 to the Eastern Canada junior crown in 1966.

THIS succession of titles started in Oshawa where Blair moved when he was two years old and where he has maintained his residence until this season. World War II — he enlisted at the age of 17 — interrupted his playing career and he turned to administration in 1946.

THE sometimes-volatile Blair won Senior B championships at Oshawa and Whitby, Ont., before 1956 when he made his first important mark in the game by taking Whitby's Dunlops to the Allan Cup, emblematic of Canada's Senior A supremacy.

THOSE same Dunlops won the world championship at Oslo in 1958, then came home to win an unprecedented second straight Allan Cup. While operating Whitby with one hand, he used the other to guide Clinton, N.Y., to the Eastern League title in 1958-59.

BLAIR launched into professional hockey in 1960 when Boston hired him to manage and coach the Eastern Professional League team in Kingston, Ont., and later enlarged his duties to Director of Player Personnel and general manager of several minor teams.

THOUGH his Kingston team won the EPHL regular-season and playoff titles in 1962-63, Blair's crowning accomplishment came in the player development field when in 1962 he signed Bobby Orr, then 14 and destined to become the greatest junior to emerge from Canada.

JOHN (MAROOSH) MARIUCCI

Assistant to the General Manager
Born: Eveleth, Minn., May 8, 1916
Home: Bloomington, Minn.

TO many Minnesotans John Mariucci means hockey and hockey means John Mariucci.

THIS relationship is not hard to understand. For more than 30 years – as a high school, college, professional and amateur player; as a college coach; now as a North Star executive – Maroosh has been the No. 1 salesman of the sport in the state.

IT all started in Eveleth, in the heart of the Iron Range country that has given birth to more professional hockey players than any other region in the United States. Mariucci came out of Eveleth to the University of Minnesota where he played defense on the unbeaten 1940 National AAU champion hockey team and end on the Big Ten champion football teams of 1937-38.

AFTER graduation in 1940 he signed a National League contract with Chicago and was assigned to Providence of the American League. It took Mariucci two weeks to make the jump to the Hawks where he stayed until World War II and three years in the Coast Guard (1942-45) intervened.

THREE more years of hard-rock defense at Chicago followed the war, then single seasons for St. Louis of the American League and Minneapolis and St. Paul of the United States League.

MARIUCCI was appointed head coach at the University of Minnesota in 1952 and served 14 years. His teams won 215, lost 150 and tied 15. Fourteen of his players won All-America honors and three of his teams played in NCAA tournaments.

THE North Stars appointed Mariucci Director of U. S. Player Development in 1966, then Assistant to the General Manager in 1967.

DAVE BALON

Left Wing 5-11 175 lbs.
Age: 29
Born: Wakaw, Sask.
Home: Prince Albert, Sask.
Left Handed, Shoots Left

Dave Balon was selected No. 1 among skaters by Minnesota in the NHL's expansion draft. Why? Because the former Montreal winger is a solid, complete hockey player. He not only scores, but also checks. In other words, he does the entire job on the ice . . . Dave's a nine-year professional with 5½ seasons in the NHL, playing for New York and Montreal, under his belt . . . His best season was 1963-64 when he scored 24 goals after New York traded him to Montreal . . . Last year he was hampered by a leg injury and was able to play only 48 games for the Canadiens . . . His greatest thrill in hockey was winning two Stanley Cups at Montreal . . . Calls Maurice Richard the best he's played against, Jean Beliveau the best he's played with . . . An ardent fisherman, he hopes to get more than a taste of Minnesota's famous ice fishing this winter . . . Works for a brewery in the off-season . . . Comes from a hockey family – younger brother Chick plays for Toledo in the IHL, older brother Rudy plays senior hockey in Calgary . . . Married. Wife's name Gwen.

GARRY
BAUMAN (BAW-man)

Goaltender 5-11 175 lbs.
Age: 27
Born: Innisfail, Alta.
Home: Calgary, Alta.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

An accident to a teammate started Garry Bauman on the road to selection as All-America goalkeeper twice at Michigan Tech and three years in professional ranks. He was playing left wing as a youngster in High River, Alta., when his team's goalie was injured. Bauman was pressed into service, managed a 5-0 shutout and has been tending goal ever since . . . He attended Tech on a hockey scholarship and acquired a degree in business administration. Made the Western Collegiate Association first all-star team three straight years and set record with 2.44 goals-against average . . . Turned professional in Montreal system in 1964 and has played in National, American and Central leagues . . . Wears mask in both practice and games . . . Great thrill in hockey was sharing the nets with Charlie Hodge for Montreal in the 1966-67 All-Star game and helping record the first shutout in the history of the game . . . Likes to golf, hunt, fish and listen to jazz . . . Works in sales and public relations in the off-season . . . Married, wife's name Marlys, father of a boy, 2.

ANDRE
BOUDRIAS (BOO-dree-a)

Center 5-7½ 165 lbs.
Age: 23
Born: Montreal, Que.
Home: Montreal, Que.

Andre Boudrias broke into the National Hockey League with a bang. While still a junior in the 1963-64 season, he was called up by the Montreal Canadiens for the final game of the regular season. During that game, he assisted on the winning goal in the victory that clinched the title for Montreal. Boudrias still remembers the incident as the greatest thrill of his brief, three-season career as a professional . . . In the Canadien system since he started and at Houston (67 games) and Montreal (2 games) last year, he was purchased by the North Stars after the expansion draft . . . Considers Boom Boom Geoffrion the greatest he's ever played with and Bobby Hull the best he's ever played against . . . Favorite recreational sport is golf . . . Works for a brewery in the off-season . . . Enjoys reading history and likes all kinds of music . . . Married and the father of a two-year-old girl. Wife's name Louise.

ROBERT (BOB)
CHARLEBOIS (SHARL-la-bwa)

Left Wing 5-11½ 176 lbs.
Age: 23
Born: Cornwall, Ont.
Home: Cornwall, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Bob Charlebois has averaged 25 goals a season during his three years as a professional. If he can maintain that average in his first year as a North Star, he will be of great assistance to Minnesota's attack . . . All three of Bob's professional seasons have been spent in the Montreal system at the Canadiens' Central League farms in Omaha and Houston. He was purchased by the North Stars from Montreal after the Canadiens had protected him in the expansion draft . . . Has finished three years of college at Sir George Williams University in Montreal and St. Thomas University in Houston, majoring in business and minoring in French . . . Played Junior A hockey for the Montreal Junior Canadiens . . . Says Jean Beliveau is the best he's ever played against . . . A pitcher in high school baseball . . . Worked in public relations at Houston in the off-season . . . One of the few single players on the North Stars' roster.

WILLIAM (BILLY) COLLINS

Right Wing 6-0 178 lbs.
Age: 24
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Home: Ottawa, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Billy Collins is one of the most aggressive of the North Star's forwards. When he goes after the puck, it's gangbusters and heaven help whoever gets in his way . . . This will be Collins' fifth year as a professional. Last season he came within a whisker of making the Rangers' roster, but wound up on Baltimore's AHL team. Collins also has played in the Western and Central leagues. His CHL experience included two seasons in St. Paul . . . Wears contact lenses . . . Biggest thrill in hockey was being picked in the expansion draft . . . Minnesota took him No. 14 off the New York roster . . . Played football and basketball at Ottawa's High School of Commerce . . . Works as carpenter's apprentice in off-season, but missed some work because of appendectomy last August . . . Performed as junior for the Toronto Marlboros and later was traded by the Leafs to New York . . . Wife Carol played volleyball, basketball and softball in high school . . . One daughter, born last May. Wife's name Carol.

WAYNE CONNELLY

Right Wing 5-10 170 lbs.
Age: 27
Born: Rouyn, Que.
Home: Toronto, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Minnesota drafted Wayne Connelly No. 5 off the Boston roster — with good reason. The Boston press kicked up a fuss over the loss of Connelly — with good reason. This young man has been around professional hockey six seasons and seems prepared to bloom into National League stardom . . . He scored 36 goals and 45 goals in two years for San Francisco's WHL team. This was good enough to earn him a regular berth at Boston last winter where he was one of the Bruins' better scorers . . . Ranks Jean Beliveau as the best he's ever played with, Gordie Howe the best he's played against . . . Instructs at hockey schools in the off-season . . . His brother, Cliff, played pro hockey for the Montreal Royals . . . Greatest thrill in hockey was playing his first NHL game with Montreal . . . Played junior hockey in the Montreal system . . . Golf is his favorite recreation . . . Married and the father of a daughter and son. Wife's name Regina.

RAYMOND (RAY) CULLEN

Center 5-11 180 lbs.
Age: 25
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Home: Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont.

Ray Cullen split the season between the National League and the American League last winter. There's no reason to doubt that he'll play full-time in the NHL this winter. Cullen, still young, has the tools — shooting and passing ability — to make the grade . . . General Manager-Coach Wren Blair showed his respect for Cullen's talent by drafting him No. 2, off the Detroit roster, among the North Stars' skating players . . . Cullen's first year of his four seasons as a professional was his biggest from a scoring standpoint. He scored 46 goals and 52 assists for St. Louis' CHL team in 1963-64. Over the four seasons he's averaged 31 goals a year in the NHL, AHL and CHL . . . A salesman in the off-season . . . Golf is Cullen's favorite recreational sport . . . Biggest thrill in hockey was winning the Memorial Cup in junior play. Married, wife's name Jacqueline, father of three sons, Gary, 4, Jeff, 3, and Randy, 1.

ALEXANDER (SANDY) FITZPATRICK

Age: 22
Born: Paisley, Scotland
Home: Markham, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Sandy Fitzpatrick is a young professional with only two years of play for pay behind him, but the rawboned youngster seems to have the tools to make the grade . . . His potential is outlined by the 51 goals he scored in his final junior season for the Kitchener Rangers . . . Though Sandy was born in the Scot city famous for its fabric and marmalade, he came to Canada when only a tot . . . Played four games for New York while still a junior, then was a regular for St. Paul's CHL team in 1965-66 . . . Hampered by an arm injury last winter at Omaha of the CHL and saw limited action . . . Drafted No. 15 from New York by the North Stars . . . In the off-season Sandy attends Kitchener Lutheran University where he majors in psychology . . . Fine all-round athlete in high school at Dundas, Ont., where he set the school record in the shot put, played on the football divisional champion team and participated in basketball . . . Best he's ever played with is Bob Nevin, best he's played against is Bobby Hull . . . Married, wife's name Deborah Jane, one son, Bret, age 1.

PETER (PETE)
GOEGAN (Go-EE-gun)
Defense 6-1 198 lbs.
Age: 32
Born: Fort William, Ont.
Home: Fort William, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Every hockey team needs what is known in the trade as a policeman. A policeman in hockey, like his counterpart in real life, restores order when things get out of hand. Pete Goegan has the equipment and the reputation to fill the role. He is not only large, but also tough. His seasonal penalty totals during 10 years as a professional include such marks as 167 minutes, 135 minutes, 122 minutes and 121 minutes. Pete keeps the opposition honest . . . His brother Tony plays for Providence in the AHL and brother Fiori is a retired pro . . . Goegan was drafted No. 7 by the North Stars off the Detroit roster. He played 31 games for Detroit last year, 34 for Pittsburgh of the AHL . . . His penalty average during 10 seasons is more than 100 minutes a year . . . Biggest thrill in hockey was playing in the Stanley Cup playoffs for Detroit . . . Works as carpenter in the off-season . . . Wife, Doreen and the father of son James, 7, and daughters Jo Anne, 6, and Karen, 5.

BILL (GOLDY) GOLDSWORTHY

Right Wing 6-0 193 lbs.
Age: 22
Born: Kitchener, Ont.
Home: Niagara Falls, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

This husky, hard-hitting youngster has been up and down with Boston during the two years since he turned professional and was drafted No. 9 by the North Stars off the Bruins' roster . . . He played 13 games for the Bruins two years ago and 18 last winter and appears on the verge of winning a regular position in the NHL . . . Came up through Boston's junior system and scored 30 goals for Niagara Falls' 1963-64 Memorial Cup champions . . . Ranks that Memorial Cup victory and the 1965-66 CHL title in Oklahoma City as his greatest thrills in hockey . . . His late father was a baseball pitcher in Kitchener . . . Bobby Orr is the best he's ever played with, Gordie Howe the best he's played against . . . Played offensive halfback in football and participated in track at Waterloo, Ont., Collegiate Institute . . . Married last spring. Wife's name June.

MURRAY HALL

Center 5-11½ 175 lbs.

Age: 26

Born: Kirkland Lake, Ont.

Home: Burlington, Ont.

Right Handed, Shoots Right

Lean, blond Murray Hall, drafted 12th by the North Stars off the Chicago roster, is a playmaker without peer. He set the Eastern Professional League record for assists with 69 at St. Louis in 1962-63 and has collected a handsome total of assists in each of his six years as a professional . . . He came to the Hawks from Detroit during last season as part of the deal that sent Howie Young to the Wings and as a result played parts of the season in Detroit, Pittsburgh and Los Angeles . . . An assistant professional in the off-season, he's likely the best golfer on the Minnesota roster . . . Calls Bobby Hull and Gordie Howe the best he's ever played with or against . . . Murray says the hardest skill for him to learn in hockey is to shoot rather than pass the puck . . . Quarterbacked and captained his high school football team . . . Married, the father of two girls. Wife's name Wendy.

LUNDE (LUN-dee)

Center or wing 6-1 194 lbs.
Age: 30
Born: Campbell River, B. C.
Home: Edmonton, Alta.
Right-Handed, Shoots Right

If Lunde can repeat his season of 1964-65, the North Stars are in for a feast of goals. During that season, the sharpshooter from Canada's western provinces nailed 50 goals for Buffalo's American League team . . . Though the 50 was Lunde's personal high-water mark, he has shown the golden touch around the goal all through his hockey career, a career that extends back 11 years, five of them in the NHL . . . Minnesota General Manager-Coach Wren Blair thought enough of Lunde's abilities to draft him No. 8 off the Chicago roster . . . Calls Gordie Howe the best he's ever played with or against . . . Lunde came up through the Detroit junior system and ended his junior career for the Edmonton Oil Kings in 1955-56 with 38 goals and 56 assists . . . Likes to play golf and is adept at playing the drums . . . Wife's name is Shirley. Four children in the family. Dale, 8, is playing youth hockey.

PARKER MACDONALD

Born: Sydney, Nova Scotia
Home: Sydney, Nova Scotia
Right-Handed, Shoots Left

Parker MacDonald, the only North Star from Canada's Maritime provinces, is as nifty around the net as any player in the sport . . . Former Detroit Assistant General Manager Johnny Mitchell described Minnesota's No. 16 draft choice (from Detroit) as "a player who has the gift of putting the puck in the net, a gift you just can't buy or teach." . . . MacDonald's greatest year as a professional was 1962-63 at Detroit where he scored 33 goals playing on a line with Gordie Howe and Alex Delvecchio . . . Called Squid by his teammates because of his background in the Maritimes where fishing is a leading industry . . . Started playing hockey at age 5 when his uncle bought him a pair of skates . . . Rates Gordie Howe as the best he's ever played with, against or seen . . . Competing in the Stanley Cup playoffs has been his greatest thrill in hockey . . . An ardent and good golfer . . . Unmarried.

CESARE
MANIAGO (Man-ee-AH-go)

Goalkeeper 6-3 183 lbs.
Age: 28
Born: Trail, B. C.
Home: North Burnaby, B. C.
Right-Handed, Shoots Right

Cesare Maniago, tallest goaltender in the National Hockey League, was the very first player chosen by Minnesota in the NHL's expansion draft. The North Stars took the lean goalie off the New York roster in the expectation that he would provide the vital strength and experience needed in goal . . . Young as goalies go at 28, Cesare has three NHL seasons behind him. During his first professional season, at the tender age of 22, Maniago played goal for Toronto in the Stanley Cup playoffs . . . He was the Central League's Most Valuable Player and Leading Goalkeeper in 1964-65 at Minneapolis . . . Cesare played junior hockey at famed St. Michael's College . . . His brother, Dino, was a Junior A performer for Edmonton . . . Calls Jean Beliveau the best he's played with, Bobby Hull the best he's faced . . . Uses a mask in practice, but not in games . . . A tennis player, he played football, basketball and softball in high school . . . Masonry construction estimator in the off-season . . . Backed up Ed Giacomin in the New York goal last year and split the season with Giacomin the previous year . . . Married, wife's name is Mavis, father of two daughters, Jodie, 2½, Carolyn, born last season.

WILLIAM (BILL) MASTERTON

Center 6-0 189 lbs.
Age: 29
Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Home: Minneapolis
Right-Handed, Shoots Right

Bill Masterton, known as Bat to his teammates, comes back to professional hockey after an absence of four years. But he's still young at the age of 29 . . . Bill first turned professional after gaining All-America honors at Denver University. He played two seasons, then put his master's degree in finance to good use in business . . . Hockey wasn't forgotten, however. He played for the U. S. National team in the off-hours after work in contract administration at Honeywell . . . He was the No. 6 scorer in the American League during his last season as a professional . . . Bill played junior hockey in Winnipeg where his father and brother, Bob, also played minor hockey . . . Named most valuable player in the NCAA tournament in his last year at Denver when he scored 27 goals and 55 assists in the season . . . Purchased by Minnesota from Montreal after the expansion draft . . . A fine golfer, Bill finished third in the 1967 NHL tournament . . . Bobby Hull's the best he's ever played against, Freddie Glover the best he's played with . . . Married, wife's name is Carol, father of a boy, 3, and a girl, 1.

MICHAEL (MIKE)
McMAHON (Mc-Man)

Defense 5-11 180 lbs.
Age: 25
Born: Quebec, Que.
Home: Fort Erie, Ont.
Right-Handed, Shoots Left

Iron Mike ranks with the best attacking defensemen on the North Stars' roster. General Manager-Coach Wren Blair plans to make certain that McMahon's puck-carrying and shooting abilities are used to good advantage on Minnesota's power play . . . Twice named Most Valuable Defenseman in the Central League — 1964-65 at St. Paul and 1966-67 at Houston — McMahon has the talent to make a large splash in the National League . . . Purchased by Minnesota from Montreal after the expansion draft . . . Combative and tough enough to take care of himself in any situation . . . Member of a hockey family, his father, Mike, Sr., played on Montreal's Stanley Cup champions in 1943-44 . . . His father started McMahon in hockey and has given him valuable advice over the years . . . Says New York's Harry Howell is the best he's played with, Gordie Howe the best he's played against . . . Works for a brewery and in the mutuel department of a race track in the off-season . . . Golf is his favorite recreation . . . Wife's name is Katherine. One son, age 2.

JEAN-GUY (ZHAN-GHEE) TALBOT

Defense 5-10 168 lbs.
Born: Cap-de-la-Madeleine, Que.
Home: Montreal, Que.

Leadership is an intangible quality, but it is the quality Jean-Guy Talbot brought to Minnesota after 13 seasons in Montreal. The hard-working rearguard has been a leader from the day that the North Stars opened camp and appears certain to continue in this role throughout the season . . . Teammates call him Guy, pronounced Ghee with a hard G . . . One of the most accomplished penalty killers in the National League . . . Good shot from the point and a solid hitter although not often in the penalty box . . . His very first hockey game was in goal. His team lost, 22-1. He switched to defense . . . Played on seven Stanley Cup champion teams at Montreal . . . Maurice Richard is the best he's played with, Gordie Howe the best he's played against . . . Fine all-round athlete, golfer, skier, swimmer, excels in all types of games . . . Married, wife's name is Pierrette, father of a girl, 13, and boys 11 and 6.

NORTHLAND

EDWARD (TED) TAYLOR

Left Wing 6-0 175 lbs.
Age: 25
Born: Brandon, Man.
Home: Oak Lake, Man.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

This gentleman farmer from the plains of western Manitoba was the wing General Manager-Coach Wren Blair wanted high in the expansion draft. Blair took Taylor off the Detroit roster on his sixth choice which shows how he regards the youngster . . . No stranger to the Twin Cities, he played in St. Paul in 1964-65 . . . Ted is the type of wing who plays the position as it should be played — up and down, never straying and always digging in the corners . . . Has scored 20 goals in four of his five professional seasons in the National, Eastern Professional, American and Central leagues . . . Gordie Howe's the greatest he's ever played with or against . . . Spent last winter with Pittsburgh's AHL team but was called up for two games by Detroit . . . Farming's a full-time job for Ted in the off-season. He raises grain, runs cattle, and hunts for recreation on his Manitoba spread . . . Married, wife's name Sharon, first-time father last summer when Jason Edward Taylor was born.

ELMER (MOOSE) VASKO

Defense 6-3 220 lbs.
Age: 31
Born: Duparquette, Que.
Home: Hillside, Ill.
Right-Handed, Shoots Left

The largest player in professional hockey, the Moose is a cornerstone of the North Stars' defense . . . He comes back to hockey after a year's retirement for business reasons . . . Vasko played all 10 of his professional seasons for the Black Hawks after leading St. Catherine's, Ont., to the Memorial Cup championship as a junior . . . Named to the NHL's second All-Star team in 1963-64 and 1962-63 . . . Doesn't pick up too many penalties, largely because other players tend to respect his size and move aside . . . Also played football in high school . . . Greatest thrill was winning Stanley Cup in Chicago . . . Ranks Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita as the finest he's played with, Gordie Howe the best he's played against . . . Owns a liquor store in Chicago and makes his permanent home in a Chicago suburb . . . Drafted 11th from Chicago by Minnesota in a tactical move by General Manager-Coach Wren Blair. Blair knew that Vasko would return to hockey. The other Western Division teams didn't know . . . Wife's name Claudette. Three boys, ranging from 7 to 1½, make up the Vasko family.

CARL WETZEL

Goalkeeper 6-1 185 lbs.
Age: 28
Born: Detroit, Mich.
Home: South St. Paul, Minn.

Carl Wetzel, the shining star for the United States National team in last winter's World tournament at Vienna, was purchased by Minnesota from Montreal after the NHL expansion draft . . . Wetzel's three years in professional hockey, including one season as backup goalie at Detroit, were interrupted by a hitch as a U.S. Army military policeman . . . The only American-born player on the North Stars' roster, Carl learned the sport in his native Detroit, but played much of his junior career across the border in Ontario . . . Signed by Detroit's Jack Adams, he has served in both the Red Wing and Montreal organizations . . . Stopped 67 shots in the U. S. team's loss to the Czechs in the World tourney . . . Nickname is Gomer . . . A journalism major at the College of St. Thomas . . . Wears a mask in practice but not in games . . . Gordie Howe is the best he's played with, Bobby Hull the best he's played against . . . An avid and good tennis player, also enjoys golf . . . Won a baseball letter in high school . . . Married, wife's name is Claudia, father of a boy, 3, and a girl, 2.

WOYTOWICH (Woy-TOW-witch)

Defense 5-11½ 195 lbs.
Age: 26
Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Home: Winnipeg, Man.

Minnesota's No. 3 choice in the National League's expansion draft — taken from the Boston roster — Bob Woytowich is one of the steadiest, soundest defensemen in either the Western or Eastern divisions . . . Bob's not the type of player you notice a great deal unless you are playing against him. Then you know he gets the job done . . . Has played the last three seasons in the National League for Boston. Before that the six-year professional was named to the Central League's All-Star team while playing in St. Paul in 1963-64 . . . Doesn't log huge totals of penalties, but knows how to take care of himself . . . Ranks Doug Harvey and Bobby Orr as the best he's ever played with, Gordie Howe the best he's played against . . . Sales representative for brewery in off-season . . . Came up through New York's junior system in Winnipeg . . . Biggest thrill in hockey was playing his first NHL game . . . Brother-in-law of Philadelphia player Jimmy Johnson . . . Married and a father for the first time last summer. Wife's name Marilyn.

THE NORTH STARS' TRAINERS

Stan Waylett has spent more than half his life as a trainer of athletes. Minnesota's head trainer admits to 55 years of age and 30 of those years have been spent as a trainer.

Waylett

An associate of General Manager-Coach Wren Blair for the last 17 years, including a world championship, two Allan cups (emblematic of Canadian senior supremacy) and the Memorial Cup Canadian junior final, Waylett has wide experience not only in training, but also in performing in the field of athletics.

The Toronto native, an off-season resident of Oshawa, Ont., played four years of lacrosse and was a talented amateur wrestler in his younger days. He also worked as a physical training instructor before he went into training, a field where he has gained universal respect over the last 30 years.

Al Schueneman, head trainer of the Chicago Cubs, will serve as Waylett's assistant after baseball season and before the Cubs start spring training. Schueneman, a native of St. Paul and a resident of Minneapolis, also has considerable hockey training experience on his record.

THE NORTH STARS' NAME

Since the motto of the state of Minnesota is L'Etoile du Nord — the Star of the North — it seems almost natural that Minnesota's first National Hockey League team carries the nickname North Stars.

But it wasn't that easy.

The Minnesota team's directors scanned 608 different nicknames among 1,536 entries in a contest to name the club.

Finally, the decision was made. North Stars would be the name.

"We wanted a name that brought to mind the state of Minnesota and that would be acceptable to surrounding states," explains President Walter L. Bush, Jr. "Yet we did not want to come too close to a name used in professional sports or by many colleges and high schools in our area.

"We think North Stars does the job."

The winning name was submitted by 52 entries. Then-Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag drew one entry for the prize of a $100 U. S. Savings Bond and two season tickets. His selection was Mr. and Mrs. William R. Swanson of Shoreview, a St. Paul suburb.

It was a fitting pick. Swanson won three letters in hockey at the University of Minnesota.

NORTH STARS' SCOUTING SYSTEM

Chief scout Ted O'Connor oversees what General Manager-Coach Wren Blair calls "the life blood of our team, our future as a National Hockey League team."

Blair's remarks were directed at the North Stars' scouting system, the system that will provide new blood for Minnesota over the years, perhaps another Bobby Orr.

O'Connor

O'Connor, a former professional player, makes his headquarters at his Oshawa, Ont., home, is in charge of the entire operation and does widespread scouting in all areas.

Area scouts working under O'Connor's direction include George Maguire, Greater Ottawa Valley; Rolly McLenahan, the Maritime Provinces; Don Brownlee, the Canadian Lakehead; Gerald Blair, Ontario.

John Mariucci, Wren Blair's special assistant, will scout the United States colleges and, with O'Connor and Gerald Blair, cover the minor professional leagues.

The North Stars are in the process of hiring a chief scout in Western Canada and setting up an area system of scouting in the West.

NORTH STARS' RADIO-TELEVISION TEAM

Depth of experience in hockey is the distinguishing feature of the North Stars' telecasting and broadcasting team on WTCN-TV (Channel 11) and WCCO-Radio.

WTCN-TV will telecast 27 away games and 3 home contests. WCCO-Radio will broadcast every North Star contest, 37 at home and 37 on the road.

Buetel

Frank Buetel, four-time winner of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists award as the outstanding sportscaster in the Twin Cities, will head the three-man WTCN-TV crew and handle play-by-play.

Buetel grew up in the hockey hotbed on Minnesota's Iron Range and played wing as a youngster. He has for six years described the Minnesota high school hockey tournament for WTCN-TV viewers, has handled color on Minnesota Twins telecasts and play-by-play for University of Minnesota hockey and basketball. He has a nightly sports show on WTCN-TV.

Canadian-born and reared Al Shaver spearheads the WCCO team and handles play-by-play. Shaver came to WCCO from CKEY in Toronto and boasts experience in both hockey and football in Montreal, Calgary, Edmonton and Windsor.

He has been the voice of the Edmonton Flyers hockey team and the Edmonton Eskimos and Montreal Alouettes football teams and for the past five years has covered Canada's Grey Cup football final.

Shaver

Buetel's color men are Dr. Robert (Bob) May and Norm Aldred, both born in Canada and now U.S. residents. Dr. May, originally from Winnipeg, played at North Dakota University and coached hockey nine years, including two seasons at North Dakota and the Denver Mavericks and Minneapolis Millers of the International League. He also is the team dentist. Aldred lives in Rochester, but was raised in Port Perry, Ont., and played hockey through his college days. His broadcast experience includes the Detroit Red Wings and a number of Ontario Hockey Association senior squads.
